11 It cometh a knowne complaint in most places and more especially amonge the in this Towne off Hull that woe the greatly oppressed and oppressed by her for there being almost no fence that can be made against them off unfettered that may secure either corne fields or pastures woe therefore the select men aforesaid for this years enfranchise have ordered that what horses or mares found shall be taken or found out of any mans property within the boundes off Hull after the last of April in this years 1645 until the the last of October next enfranchise without fetters shall pay for every such horse or mare three shillings the one halfe to the Towne the other halfe to the officers and woe by apoynt Samuel Baker and Joseph Bonson to take after and take by all such horses according to the order

12 It cometh soe that the promiscuous puttinge over of sheepe onto gooddocks (Hind) at rounde to passe that the said Hind is much oppressed because some men put more many more then the proportion will maintaine in and soe others are wronged 13 Woe therefore the present select men off Hull off the year enfranchise doe order and Enioyne that all persons that will put any sheepe onto gooddocks (Hind) shall be in an account what number off sheepe they put over to the aforesaid Hind unto the aforesaid Towne men at Hull at or before the 15th off April next enfranchise upon the forfeiture off twelue pence a sheepe for every sheepe

Hull December the fifteenth in the year 1718 at a legal town meeting the inhabitants of the town of Hull met to gether and voted Benjamin Jones to be moderator of that meeting and it was voted that no swine should go at large upon the common after the fifteenth day of march which will be in the year 1719 and after that day no swine to go upon the commons and that the owner of such swine shall be liable to pay five shillings per head for all such swine going upon the common after warning given and five shillings the second time after warning and so like wise so often as they shall be found upon the common the okoshon of this order is because our swine do ruin up our common and spoil our watering places for our cattell

2^d At the same meeting it was voted that all ducks and geese going at large upon the common after the first day of January which will be in the year 1719 the owners thereof are liable to pay two shillings per head after warning given and so like wise so often as they shall be found upon the common the okoshon of this order is because the ducks and geese do spoil our watering places they being very small

3. at the same meeting it was voted that no dogs nor liches running or going at large abroad alone from their masters after the first day of January which will be in the year 1719 they are to be taken up and the owners or owner of such dogs or liches shall be liable to pay the sum of five shillings for the first time so taken and ten for the second time and
found running at liberty from their masters the occasion of this order is to cause we have had great loss and spoils amongst our sheep and hams by these voracious dogs as has about

The subject men of the town of Hull present this by James or John Windsor writing for the court information of the persons who were present at the meeting of the friends of the cause of the colored people in the city of New York, on the 1st of January 1848. The meeting was held at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Thomas, and was attended by a large number of persons, both of color and of the white race. The meeting was very interesting and profitable, and resulted in the formation of a new association, the

To the Town Council
 From the Town Council
 The Town Council has received from the Mayor of London a copy of the Report of the Committee on the Administration of Justice for the year ending 1900.
 The Council has considered the Report and has resolved to adopt the recommendations contained therein.
 The Council also resolves to send a copy of the Report to the House of Commons.

For the purpose of the present, I have been convinced that the only way to secure the peace of the country is to bring about a general amnesty for all the persons who have been concerned in the late disturbances.
I have been thinking of this much lately, and I am convinced that it is the only way to bring about a general amnesty for all the persons who have been concerned in the late disturbances. I have been
